"HELP...Me Climb My Mountain"

The lessons in this book were written to help the Christian meet the obstacles he or she will face as one practices faith. After one is saved, a Christian must learn how to continue to be faithful and to lead others to the Lord. Covered are...Worry, Suffering, Prayer, Criticism, Providence, etc.
Paper 128 Pages $4.95

"PEACE...Be Still"

In a troubled world, it is hard to find the peace that Jesus offers. The Word of God has shown us the way to be happy. These lessons deal with the problems that rob us of our peace and help us to enjoy our faith and our lives. A great gift for a young person or a shut-in.
Paper 134 Pages $4.95

"TRAIN...Up a Child"

This is a book of lessons addressed to young people. It is written on their level by a father of four and a grandfather of seven. It has 13 lessons and questions at the end of each lesson. It makes a good quarter of study in a classroom. It also makes a great gift for a young person on any occasion.

The Right Combination!

The AUTHOR, Bill E. Smith, has spent more than 50 years in local church work and in the production of Christian literature. His writing is dedicated to producing material that will build faith and encourage spiritual growth among children of God. His love for God's Word is very evident in these books.

These WORKBOOKS are Scriptural, practical, interesting, and economical! The student has blanks to fill in before or during class and will have to use the Bible to do so. Answers are then discussed in the classroom using Scriptures which are supplied. There are 48 workbooks from which one can choose to study.

The TEACHER has a quarter of lessons outlined to help lead a class in a study of a topic that is of great interest or of a portion of Scripture which is just as exciting today as when it was written. Busy teachers will appreciate the help that these workbooks offer!
